

Real estate market report of the Federation of BiH for 2022

10.10.2023 10:00

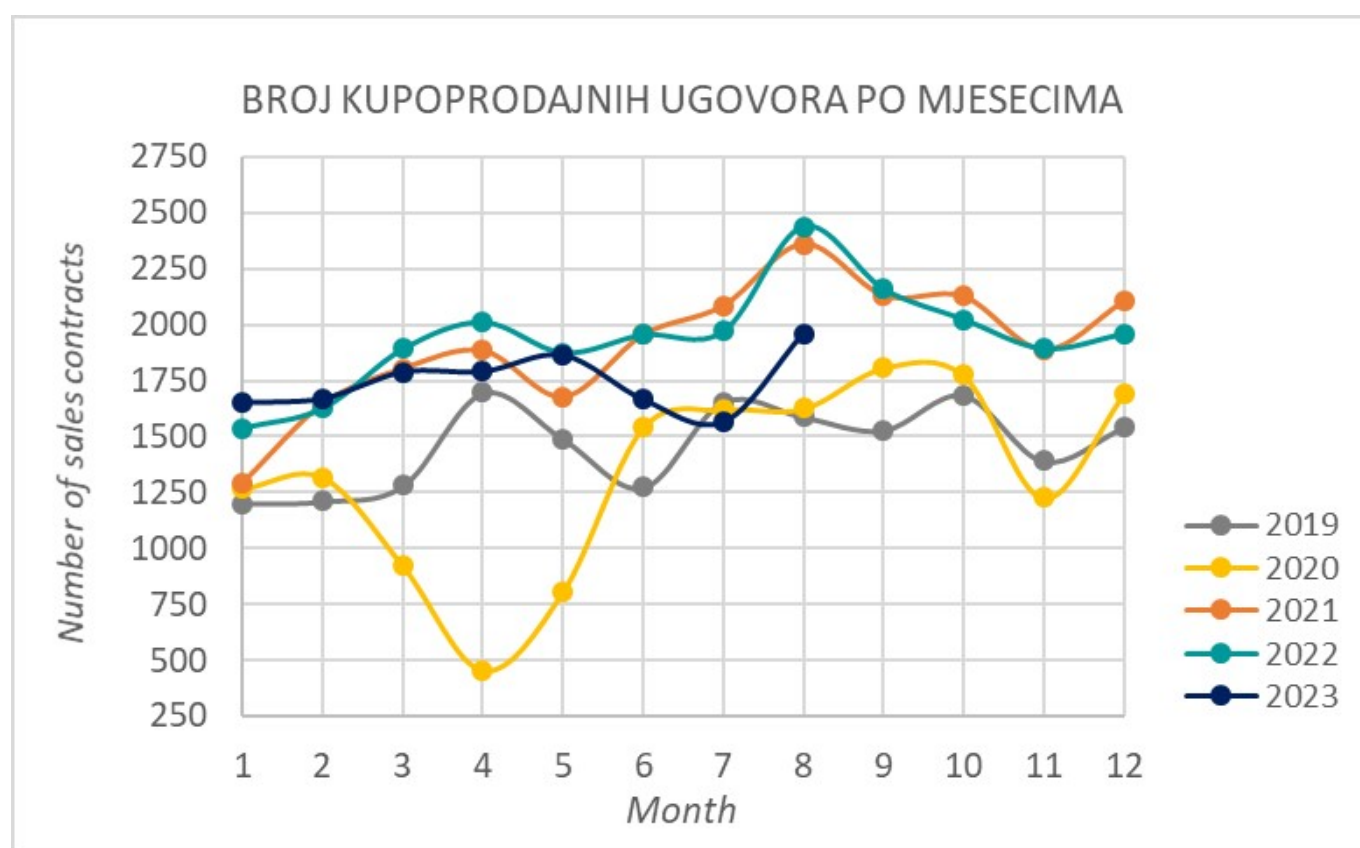

Through the realization of the activities of the Federal Administration for Geodetic and Real Property

Affairs (FGA) related to the establishment of the Sales Price Register (SPR) in co-operation with the Tax Administration of the Federation BiH (TA FBiH) and local self-government units (LSGU), it was made a Real Estate Market Report of the Federation of BiH for Year 2022.

The Sales Price Register is in service to provide relevant information to real estate market participants, FGA as well as TA FBiH and LSGU. At the time of writing, this Report the system is in use in 74 local self-government units, out of a total of 79 and in 73 tax offices, out of a total of 73 in the Federation of BiH.

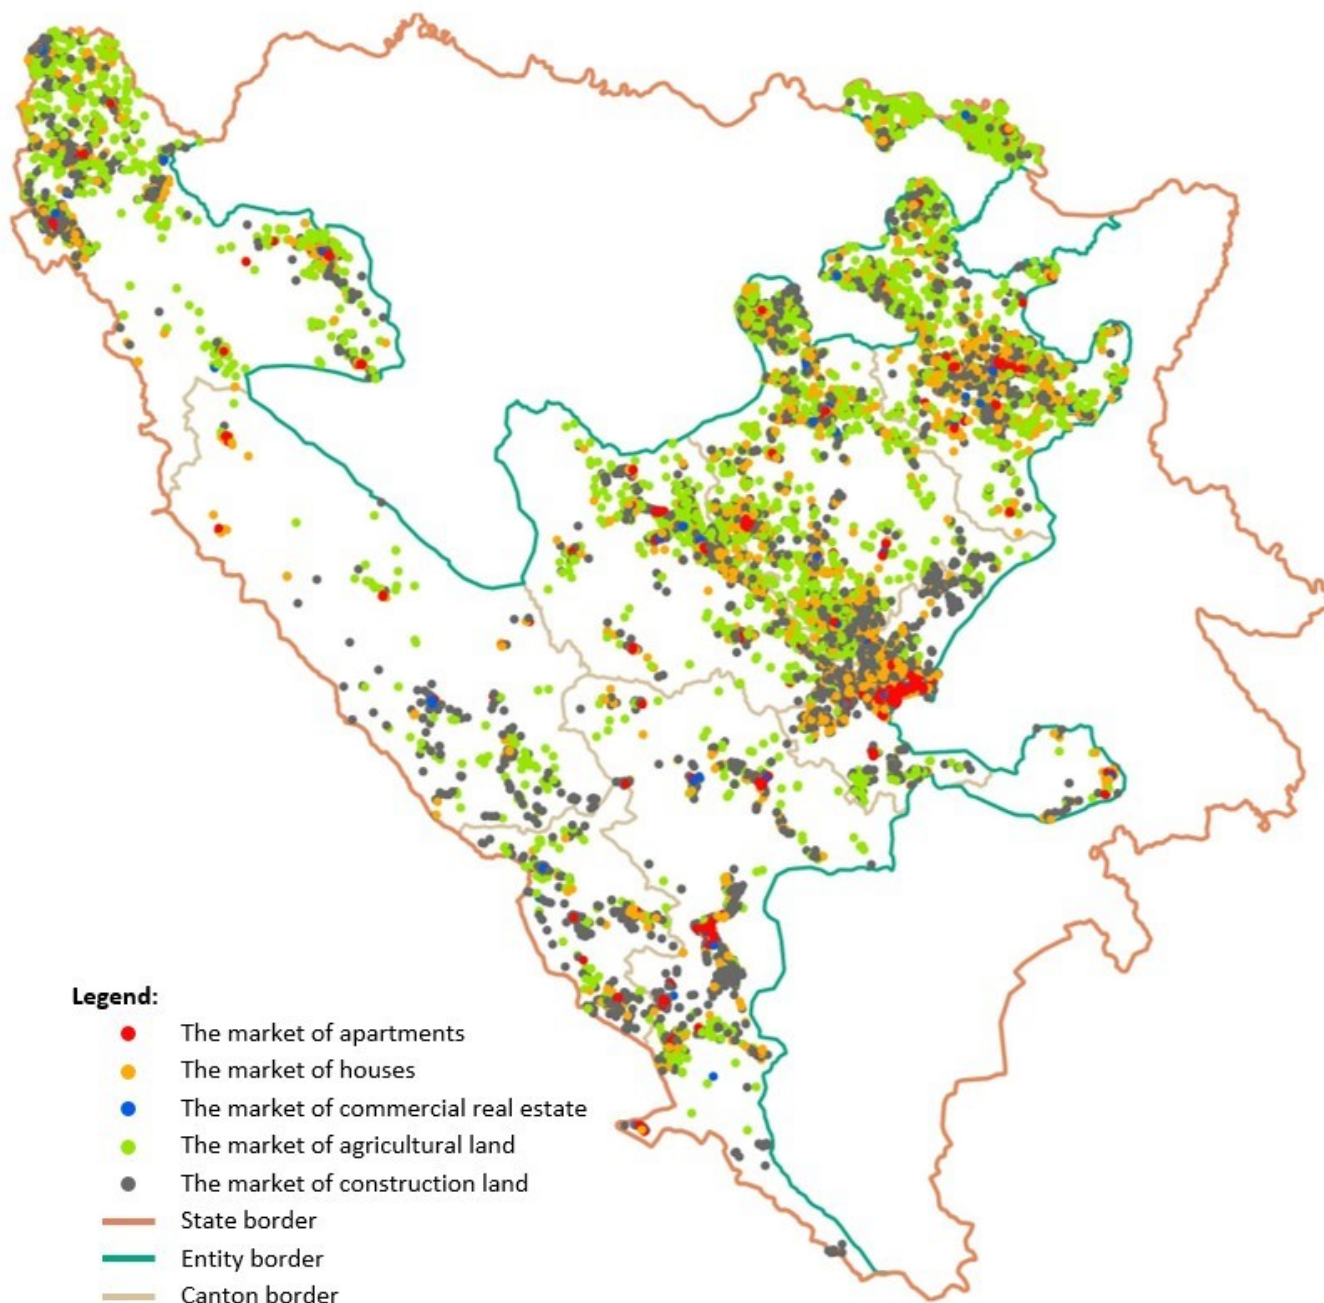

The analysis was made based on registered contracts for Year 2022, and more detailed analyses of market activities depend on the input of data throughout the Year 2022 and the volume of markets for certain types of real estate.

Total number of sales contracts registered in the period from 01.01.-31.12.2022, in the territory of the Federation of BiH is 24 156, while the realized value from the sales contracts is 1.905.725.397 BAM.

Total number of real estates in sales contracts registered in the period from 01.01.-31.12.2022, and recorded by municipal commission for real estate valuation is 39 529.

There are three dominant categories of real estate according to the number of transactions: building land, apartments and agricultural land. The value of contracts prevails over the apartments, building land and business premises

According to available data, the average apartment price on the secondary market in the Federation is 2.015 BAM/m². The largest volume of apartment's transactions in 2022 was registered in Municipality Novi Grad Sarajevo, Municipality Novo Sarajevo, Municipality Centar Sarajevo, City of Mostar, Municipality Ilidža, City of Tuzla and City of Zenica.

In accordance with the available data for 2022 in the Federation of BH, the average price of an apartment is higher by 14% compared to 2021.

The highest paid prices of apartments in the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina are in the municipalities of Centar Sarajevo and Stari Grad Sarajevo, with the average price 2.990 BAM/m². The most expensive apartment in the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina in the Year 2022 was in the Municipality of Novi Grad Sarajevo and its total paid price was 938.800 BAM and the usable area of that apartment is 193 m².

Regarding the traded houses, the following average values were obtained: the average usable area of the building is 127 m², the average price per living area of the house is 710 BAM/m², the average area of the house with land is 965 m², the average price per area of the house with land is 188 BAM/m², and the average total price of the house with land is 87.570 BAM. The price of the most expensive house with a land in the Federation of BH during 2022 is 825.360 BAM in the Municipality Novo Sarajevo, with the living area of 500 m² and 1073 m² of total land area with the house.

During the last Year, the most expensive business premises – local was 9.935 BAM/m² in the Municipality of Center Sarajevo, and the office space was 8.047 BAM/m² in the Municipality of Novo Sarajevo. Regarding the garage, the most expensive garage or garage place in the building was 3.352 BAM/m² in the area of Municipality Center Sarajevo.

The average price of agricultural land at the level of the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina is 2,69 BAM/m².

Comparing the number of data reviews of SPR public access and sales made in the same period, it was concluded that the lowest number of sales was realised in the period between January and February, and the lowest number of public views was in March. After that, the number of sales start to increase until August, while public interest of SPR data rose until October.

The Federal Administration for Geodetic and Real Property Affairs together with the Tax Administration of the Federation BiH and local self-government units will continue to contribute to the transparency of the real estate market through public access to data and reports.

The report can be viewed through the link:

Report_RCN_2022.pdf \(2.7 MiB\)