The 14th Conference "Spatial Data Infrastructure Days" was held in the organization of the State Geodetic Administration of the Republic of Croatia on May 28, 2024. This year's Conference was held in the National and University Library in Zagreb. The conference was attended, among others, by representatives of the countries of the region, who presented current events in the field of spatial data infrastructure in their countries.

On behalf of the Federal Geodetic Administration the conference was attended by Mr. Jasmin Ćatić, senior expert associate for Geoportal SDI FBIH, and held a presentation on the topic "Current affairs in the field of the Spatial Data Infrastructure in the Federation of BiH".

Through the presentations held in all sessions as well as the accompanying panel discussion, achievements in the field of SDI, future development, plans, as well as the SDI application in current initiatives and trends in the field of spatial data management and land administration in general, were highlighted.
